

1. iSurvey

Our Strengths. Your Advantage.

Take Advantage from our long experience

1.1. world-wide data collection

We have surveyed real estate and field portfolios both locally and on a world basis. Our success is the use of our innovative technologies. SiteMaster Series of Software and with our world-wide partner network, we manage any sized project portfolio to any regional standard.

1.2. fast accurate survey delivery

Graebert delivers consistently high standard accurate surveys aided by the features in our software. Our drawings always ensure that the client has consistent drawing standards wherever the project is. Graebert GMBH are experts in solving projects with time critical status.

1.3. individual adjustments

In connection with our software development team we can adapt our software to specific client and project related needs ultimately shortening the data collection process.

1.4. economic pricing

Through our innovative technologies we are able to offer market competitive prices at a high quality. In general we require less man power compared to others and this advantage is passed on to our clients.

1.5. flexibility

What ever the solution needed to fill survey demands: Graebert I Survey will become part of your businesses team; our transparent approach brings project skills coupled with the power of Graebert SiteMaster Software ensures a flexibility that will satisfy your business needs.

1. iSurvey

Our Strengths. Your Advantage.

Take Advantage from our long experience

1.6. innovative technology

Our software evolves on a daily basis keeping it at the forefront of technology; our developers are very closely integrated with the survey teams so ideas can be turned in to innovation with the constant goal to make our surveying solutions more powerful and cost effective.

1.7. Quality management

Every survey is documented and traceable in the CAD survey protocols, giving transparency and control of our work. Internal Quality Management is maintained by regular training on the latest technology standards.

1.8. short learning process

Our surveying process stand out enabling inexperienced colleagues to turn into competent data collectors in a very short period of time.

1.9. effective use of man power

Graebert GMBH can use client personnel to survey their own properties: This way our clients save money and can continue to update their data on a regular basis.

1.10. co-operative appearance

We see our self as partner for your project. Make use of our man power and competence when displaying your competence to the outside.

1. iSurvey

Our Strengths. Your Advantage.

Take Advantage from our long experience

1.11. data security

Your data is safe with us. Collected data can be saved on site to a secure project server before we leave through WLAN, 3G, GPRS technology ensuring data integrity is maintained. Alternatively through the Graebert Portal we can manage and maintain your survey data.

1.12. online project server

Transparent Project Management: Your survey data will be managed online on the Graebert Portal project server. Through password access you are able check the current status of the project from anywhere in the world.